Harble Island Jan. 23 1865

Today the ~~peace~~<sup>peace</sup> and quietness of <sup>our</sup> little Community was greatly disturbed by one of the most Terrifick encounters between man and man on record & prize fight between the celebrated plugugly Tom Crow and Loony Pete. It is said ~~by the~~ that Pete was not in condition while Crow has been inactive training for some time the two belligerents met between 9 and 10 o'clock on board the Clipper Schooner Cornelia when Pete walked up to Crow and spit in his left eye when Crow boldly dared him to do it three times more which he did John Bull stepped up to Second Crow and Brave done the same for Pete and at the call of time by old Labrador both men took off their shoes and came gallantly up to the scratch.

1st Round: Pete came on with his right hand well braced in his Starboard pocket the other slightly raised above his left ear While Corou looked equally well but it was remarked that ~~he~~ <sup>he</sup> while kept one eye on Pete the other was thrown <sup>over</sup> his left shoulder towards the Drytuff. Pete struck ~~Corou~~ Corou a heavy blow on the left hand with his right eye both down and led to their corners.

2 Round

at the call of time by ~~an~~ ever watchfull Learadore A slight disturbance was made by old Skinner who Rushed into the Ring and demanded if they were both Union men. both men saying yes sire. the fight went on.

3<sup>d</sup> and last Round

Both men were now so badly punished that they had to be Carried to the Scratch

~~cow~~ Pete led off by Striking Crow & Terrific blow somewhere between the right eye and the left big toe Which sent Crow down with the words Marthagon ~~slowly~~ slowly oozing from his mouth gavin Bull threw up the sponge and Pete was declared the winner
